

Saturday March 11, 1922

I delivered to the Club and round the Townline and Kent delivered to the Bay with the big team and took back the milk wagon.

It rained and snowed last night and this morning which made the roads soft and very heavy.

The day became fine in the afternoon.

Sunday March 12, 1922.

John and I went to Church and John stayed for S. School. Charlie Bump and Joots were here and went back to Chatham on the afternoon car.

Maudie went to Wallaseburg on the 5:45 from Chatham.

The day was fine.

Monday March 13, 1922.

I delivered to the Club and round the Townline with Dick and Kent - delivered to the Bay and back with Alf and the cart.

The day was fine but there was no snow.
