

the building and I kept them supplied with water and had the rest of the time to myself. I spent most of it lying around in their way.

The cows were up early to night so we got through early. I started to make a milk stool whether I ever get it done or not remains to be seen. Dick and Bill went down town to night to hear the band. Bill took Cuah's wheel down <sup>to be fixed</sup>. There was an excursion from town in town to day.

Miss Phipps came over to night I suppose for some cream.

It has been very sunny to-day but quite cool. At noon it was very dark and rained a few drops but soon cleared off.

The pigs are having a fine time in the orchard now plaguing the life out of poor David who has to <sup>go to</sup> <sup>polite to</sup> say anything.

Lambkin's came to night and paid for fifteen dollars for the hay on the back field, making $100 revenue from the farm so far. Daddy drove Cuah and Dick down town to night. Cuah has to play on Sunday for Miss Hunt. A day is coming right back and Dick wants Cuah. Yacht warm to day.

Friday July 28th

This morning got up with out waking Lila about 5:40, milked Bobby and shivered around till breakfast. Mr. Smith did not turn up to-day so we surmised he could not get a man to help him. Emery came a little while after with Leon. When Lila got up she showed him all over the farm and then Dick got up and tried to beat Lila waiting on Leon who tore all over jabbering a blue streak all the time.

Daddy went up to Sam Thompson's after breakfast and I finished making my milk stool. It is not right yet though. About eleven Daddy and I drove for down to the mill to get a jack screw to work on the stable. I had mangles all the after noon. Emery and Leon went home to night as he wanted to cut his oats to-morrow. Bill said he could stay next week he thought and help with the stable.
