

in the Imperial Valley at Calipico. & Mexacali along the Mexican border about 150 miles from here. but we did not feel them here.
Jan 4th went out University to Washington and on to Ft.
Stockton Drive out in the Mission Hill district. it is a nice residential section with some lovely homes but streets are all curves & corners. if a man came home drunk he certainly would get lost or break his neck on the way we wanted to get to old

Town from here. after getting lost a few times we managed to get down the hill and on to the La Jolla ave which took us direct to Ramona's marriage Place we all enjoyed walking around the garden among the flowers. took some more pictures inside also some outside in the Park were the first American Flag was raised in Calif. came home by California St. Down near the water.
Saw some warships in the
