

TUESDAY, MARCH 15, 1870.

Charley has been
wrestling rats today.
I have been busy at sundry jobs.

We had visitors out
from Dover. Mrs. Hall and Kate Kiddleb. I had to spend part of the time with them of course. Kate
is quite a fine girl,
in a good many respects.

It's night then came an old brother, to stop with us, by chance.
He proved to be a good old man - a local preacher of our own body. His name is Henry H. He lives near Toronto. I was quite pleased with his company.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, 1870.

It stormed this forenoon more like
February than March.

Charley has been
wrestling rats &c.

This afternoon I went out to Dover ~~with~~ Mrs.
Fox went out with me.
I took him to Wilcox and to Mrs. Gorman's. At the latter place there happened to be a lot of my young lady friends in the hall, I was induced to stay with them. Had a very pleasant little time with them among others were Anne D. & Helen E.

I attended a lecture and concert to night in the town hall. The lecture was on Africa & was read by Charles F.
Lyndock.
