

December, 1929.

18 ~~Wednesday~~ Wednesday. Fair morning.

Started to snow and storm something fierce this afternoon. Walter and Ella drove down to Milton Eric's in the cutter this morning and went to Kitchener with them in their car to do some Christmas shopping. We didn't get along too badly going down but coming home we couldn't get any farther than Wm. Mattusch's lane so we went in there to phone Walter ^{address} to come out with the sleigh for us. We had our supper at Milton's and Walter & Ella drove home ^{from there} all the storm. ~~We~~ had another upset but reached home eventually at 11 p.m. Saw Horst and Noah Miller called.

19 Thursday. Cold & rather stormy.

The men were home all day. No traffic on our road and no mail. Ella baked cookies and wrapped Christmas parcels. Thom Schneider and Lorne Reist called this p.m.
