

September, 1930.

15 Monday. Showery. Vernon was plowing. Walter took the saw over to Elmo King's this morning and went to Floradale this p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Elmo King, Helen and Jack spent the evening here and we cleaned elderberries.

16 Tuesday. Showery & cool. Vernon plowed. A returned soldier from Toronto who is taking subscriptions for magazines was here for dinner. Neldo Stickney and son Wayne spent the afternoon with Walter.

17 Wednesday. Cloudy & cool. Vernon plowed all day. Walter took a load of trash to the dump. Charles J. Hilliard and grandson Murray came here for dinner. This afternoon Charlie took Walter & Ella along to Clifford and we had our tea at Uncle Jake Maurer's.
