

Nov 13th / 1892.

Sun 13. Fine but cloudy, a little cold, froze during the night previous, at Mr John Harding for tea and accompanied them to Church at night spent the remainder of the evening at Mrs McLeod, and got a good smash in the stomach by a Miss Barton who is stopping there

Mon 14. Fine warm day wind warm from the south, commencement of Indian Summer. Cloudy all day. Slept at Mrs Lourens,

Tue 15. Very fine warm day, partly cloudy

Wed 16. Very rainy today commenced about two o'clock continuing all day

Thu 17. Mild days mostly cloudy sky very red from the sunrise

Nov 18th / 1892,

Fri 17. Raining all day, turning to snow at evening covering the ground about 2 inches deep.

Sat 18. Squally day occasional fall of snow, and sun shining at intervals melting the snow of yesterday and making roads very muddy went to Kingston with J. Harding, wife and ~~mother~~ mother and Miss H. D. D. Harding and I visited the Dry docks and Engine works and also the Water Works Engine works.

Sun 19. Very fine day freezing a little last night attended Church and Sunday School Stayed all night at Andy's McLeod