

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1870.

I remained in Dundas until about three o'clock. Started then for Nelson via Hamilton. Took Maggie Baird to Hamilton & went from there to Nelson alone. Got there about dark. Found them all well. I went with them to meeting at the church. Heard Rev. Thomas Jeffrey preach. The sermon was splendid, and the prayer-meeting also was a powerful season of refreshing. I did not enjoy much, my visit as it seemed that my presence was not altogether appreciated or desired. Especially by

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1870.

This forenoon I spent mostly at Springers but about eleven I went down to Col. Sovereigns. Frank and Emily went up to Grayville just before I started. I did not feel very comfortable about it, but then it is my desire continually, to commit all my way unto the Lord that he may direct my paths. As I have asked the Lord to lead me in this matter I consider that he has lead me and that by those paths which are not your own, are good and his own glory. If God gives me I pray that a sweet & burning spirit for Jesus sake.
