

she would get him to call up the Quakers to night. I was there quite awhile talking to Charlie who is home again in bed with the flu. They also got playing the new Victrola for me. Winnie was over to tea and she and Frank have just gone down town Frank is going to Club if there is any. Pommers got caught in the wire fence this morning and cut his hind leg pretty badly and is very sore on it. Another lovely day but not enough wind & sun.

Friday February 16th

We took another load of manure down to Auntie's this afternoon. We didn't get it loaded till noon. Frank's throat was sore so he didn't stay out long. Auntie and Auntie Alice rode over as far as Mr. Patterslip's with us they were going to see Miss Phipps. I went down there to tea to night and after tea went up town to see Mary and then up to Hubby's didn't get home till quite late very nasty blustering morning with a lot of snow but quite a nice mild afternoon and night.

Saturday February 17th

Les Dunkin telephoned the Quakers that if I wanted any seed corn I would have to get it either yesterday morning or this morning I went up this morning. I got two bushels of
