

POWERS—COX

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Cox, of Malahide on Wednesday evening, October 9th, at 8 o'clock, when their youngest daughter Nina Evelyn, became the bride of Herbert L. Powers, when the Rev. T. J. Mitchell, officiated. At 8 o'clock the bridal party entered the drawing room to the strains of the wedding march and took their places under an arch of flags and evergreen. The bride looked charming in a gown of white silk and net trimming, carrying a pink and white bouquet of carnations and ferns. She was given away by her father. Mrs. Clarence Cox presided at the piano and played the wedding march, after which a dainty luncheon was served.

The grooms' gift to the bride was a beautiful sunburst pin, to the pianist a pearl crescent pin. The bride and groom received many presents, including some cheques, showing the esteem in which they are held.

The bridal party left amid showers of confetti for points east, the bride travelling in a brown serge suit with hat to match.

Guests to the number of seventy-five were present from Belmont, St. Thomas, London, Aylmer, Sparta and Kingsmill.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Powers will take up their residence on the groom's farm, New Sarum.
