

December, 1928

17 Monday. Awful weather.

Rained all day. Walter killed two cows for Israel Shoemaker. Mr. & Mrs. Shoemaker and Cecil were here for dinner.

18 Tuesday. Cold & stormy.

Walter helped Ella do the washing and put on the rest of the storm windows and the two doors. Ella did the ironing this afternoon. Vernon & Harvey worked in the bush all day.

19 Wednesday. Cold. Some real blizzards. Walter & Ella went to Kitchener this a.m. to do some Christmas shopping. They had their dinner at Edith's and supper at Grandpa Krauter's, also called at Lincoln Weaver's in Waterloo this morning. Vernon & Harvey were cutting wood all day.

20 Thursday. Cold. Snowflurries.

Vernon & Harvey were cutting wood all day. Walter butchered 6 little pigs for Charlie Miller and stayed for tea. We went to the Woolwich school concert tonight.
