

Wolford June 26 July

- 26 Set two shoes on the horses.
Ground the scythe and mowed
the orchard and some behind the barn. Beautiful day.
- 27 I went to S. Hall's to a day school picnic. Had a splendid good time. Henry came home for the school closed today.
- 28 Plowed out corn and potatoes
beside the orchard. Hoed early Rose potatoes. Beautiful day.
- 29 Sunday. Beautiful day. Rev J. C. Slater preached. Jennie Ballantyne is sick.
- 30 I went up to Edgum to move
a load of Brocke things down to the station. I am to come back tomorrow.
Beautiful day only the wind blowing pretty hard.

Wolford July 1st / 1873

- 1 Rained all night but turned off pleasant about 9 o'clock.
I came home this afternoon.
Mrs. Blaine came down and brought a load of, got home
about half past ten at night.
- 2 Jennie Ballantyne died last night about 11 o'clock. Gone home.
Weeding onions in the morning and then went to plowing and hoeing corn after supper. Drew some hay from the woods that Pa
and Henry cut Monday.
- 3 Attended Jennie's funeral today.
She was buried up near the falls
on the McAdams road.
Rained a little.
I was one of the pall bearers.
There were two nice showers
of rain this afternoon.
