

Friday October 1st

It has rained steadily all day and has been very raw and cold. Tom Butler came in on his way down town and he and Frank went over to look at the stuff Flemming has for sale and then he came back here and had dinner. I didn't do any thing much but a few chores. Frank went home with Tom this afternoon and stayed there for tea and all night so that he could put a fire on in the engine in the morning to finish thrashing at Art Juahbury's. Miserable day but good for the wheat.

Saturday October 2nd

Dad and Frank went over and finished thrashing at Art Juahbury's this morning. Dad got home before dinner and Frank went on to Charlie Munroe's with the machine. I took Auntie's milk down this morning and on my way back stopped in at the Zealand's to show her various things about the place and told her I could have the house any time I wanted it, so I told him that would be in about three weeks I hoped. Dad and I dug a couple of rows of potatoes this afternoon. I went down to meet the Lupp's boys to night but you were very busy.

Sunday October 3rd

Frank, Sid and I went down to Sunday school and Church and Leah came down to Church. Auntie came back over here to dinner. It rained this morning a little and has been cloudy and cool all day.

Tuesday October 12th

I have somehow got far behind in writing this and can't remember precisely what happened from day to day so will have to make a summary of last week's events. I think we finished cutting the field corn Tuesday the fifth working at it Monday afternoon & Tuesday. We cut the fodder corn Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning. There will be quite a lot of feed on it considering how late it was put in. We spent the rest of the time up till Wednesday noon digging potatoes. We just finished that job yesterday afternoon and got nearly fifty bushels out of the patch in the field. We have them piled out in the field. Thursday afternoon Dad had to go to be bearer at Mrs. Tommy Jackson's funeral and I went over to Ernie Flemming's sale. Friday Dad and I were over at Tom & Mark's all day thrashing and finished up there Saturday forenoon. From there I went with Art Juahbury down to Quam Abbot's to look at an old house which Art wants to buy to tear down and use the stuff to build his new one. Dad went over to John West's for a visit and stayed there to dinner. Frank thrashed with Sam Monday morning and then stays quiet till after dinner but Frank
