

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1870.

We spent a very pleasant forenoon
at the house of our friends. After dinner
Mrs Harris and I
went out for a drive.
This evening I went with him to his
protracted meeting
at the Bethel Chapel.
We went through Harrisburg. The meeting was rather interesting. Souls
are being saved.

Seasons of sweet-
communion are
still granted me,
and my will is becoming more &
more lost in His will. He knows the desires of my heart & He alone can give.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1870.

Mother and I started for Dundas about nine or ten. Our visit at St.
George has been a very pleasant and agreeable one throughout. I did not take us long to go down
to Dundas. Found
our friends there all well. I went down to the Plains
Chapel with Bro. Stand & attended a Primitive Meeting there. This also was a pleasant little trip. Met with my old friend Benjamin Clement, also made
the acquaintance of
several new ones.
He met Mr. & Mrs. Goffe of the latter I joined to with Garrison.
