

January, 1929.

1 Monday. Fierce storm all day and very cold. The men did the chores and sat in the house the rest of the time and bathed Ellw. No traffic on our road at all and consequently no mail.

2 Tuesday. Very cold with snowflurries. Walter killed a cattle beast for Enoch Schneider today also dressed 7 pigs for Charlie Miller. Charlie helped and was here for dinner.

3 Wednesday. Foggy and raw. Mrs. Leon Wagner was buried today. Walter, Ellw & Vernon went to the funeral and Walter & Charlie sang "Sometime will understand".

Walter took some meat to Elmira this morning and went to Alma after the funeral.

Born. - On Jan. 8 at Floradale to Mr. & Mrs. Clarence Dehner, a daughter. Gladys Fern.
