Camden Gone June 1883

Thu June 7th clear most of the day and hot hot. the boys and I was pileing manure in the fore noon. John finished harrowing and commenced marking out the corn ground. Mr Skinner commenced Shearing the Sheep this after noon

Fri June 8th clear most of the day and hot cloudy this Evening and looks like rain we was planting corn. Mr Skiner finished Shearing the Sheep this after noon

Sat June 9th Cloudy wet fore part of the day. I finished planting corn in the field East of the barn

Sun June 10th cloudy and cool.

Mon June 11th cloudy. went over the river and gave the young cattle Some Salt this fore noon after noon was planting potatoes. James Staggs & John working at the fence this after noon. Cool.

Tue June cloud and warm. I was helping Albert Ketcheson plant his corn. John & James Staggs was working at the fence

Wed June 13th flying clouds and cool. went to Dresden to Mill. James Staggs child died last night