311 TO COME

Anemia of Neurotic Origin.

The causal neurosis having once been remedied, the resultant blood poverty is amenable to steady and rapid improvement through direct hematinic therapy. Pepto-Mangan (Gude) is the one non-irritant, distinctly palatable, easily tolerable, and readily assimilable hemic reconstitutor especially applicable in such cases.

A lovely spring day off & washed & the clothes got dry. Roads very muddy. Julia took Grace & her - for her. John has been drawing Marjorie. Bayle tapped some maple trees up & Emily & Cecil hang bells & Jim! Quelbas quilt to gether this afternoon. I am too tired for anything.
