

67 heads for head chest. - Rexington brought our mail Paul was out with theirs & got out Sun 19. froze hard last night wind north east awful cold for the sick turkey. Marjorie went to church 14 out. she minister appointed Hattie & Burtie Bell appointed Stewards of the church.
Terrible cold last night such a strong north wind Mon 20 Terrible cold yet wind with east more north & feel sorry for the sick turkey such a cold place I churned & worked the butter made gingers pretty pan cakes. swept & cleaned the linoicum Marjorie dusted & baked bread the cooked onions & potatoes for supper Arthur over he has a lame ^{foot} jack jumped on it. Paul drowned Beets two little kills he fixed in front of the cow a platform Tue 21. cold north east wind but the day was fine otherwise. I went down at night & swept & dusted, I baked plum Tart & 3 pies plum & elderberry mixed. Marjorie finished her jacket. the teacher & I went over to the other house. white frost glistening on everything when we came home Wed 22 beautiful day. just as Marjorie was ready to step in the cart to go to Chippawa Mrs Creech came for a visit. Arthur over in the evening we had quite a controversy on Manitoba & Ontario Thurs 23. just a beautiful day sunshine & wind touch. clear Indian Summer. Paul cleaned the hen house. the turkey died yesterday. Marjorie went to Chippawa with the cart had 5th butter & 2A bought Phenix Blower to disinfest the hen house 25th Fri 13. Soda 5- soap 5- castor oil 10 coal oil 17 Pauls shirt 20th 12 on the book. Hattie sent the collar to Feltie. through the Post Office. I washed 3 flannel shirts two of mine & one of Marjorie & a lot of other things they dried fine the wind was right for them Will went to Ford with chaffin for his pigs he got a hundred of flour. for us & 2nd D. Don Well here on the evening Friday 24. touch west wind. started to rain in forenoon. Paul washing cows. Will & Arthur went with hay to Vanderburgh. I churned & worked the butter & made drop cake for the teacher dinner. had her clean out from under the tables for fruit ^{the} shingles & long wood they carried on on the kitchen floor. Hattie over for awhile she took my hanging basket over Marjorie took the teacher part way on the democrat after supper the wind got so high it was just terrible - two eggs a day over Sat 25. high south west wind on the evening blew a perfect gale for awhile Marjorie washed most all day principally her own clothes got some of them dry had to wash them over the black things on account of the stuff she washed them with. I cleared up the pantry & put clean paper on the shelves & table. blacked the stool. cleaned the lamps put a new wick in one. swept & cleaned & washed the chairs. rid up my drawers then mended