

October, 1930

9 Thursday. Foggy morning fine day. Eli Sauder came this morning and they started cementing the new cistern Sam Horst helped this afternoon

10 Friday. Fair and warm.
Eli Sauder left after dinner and Walter went to Reuben Lawson's sale this afternoon. Milton Eix went with him. Six men from Hilliard's fox ranch went on a horse butchering expedition to Clifford today and called in here this morning.
Eva Schneider visited Ella this afternoon.

11 Saturday. Warm summery day. Walter drew home water from the creek in Edmund Schwandt's bush today as our wells have gone dry.
He killed a sheep for Edmund this morning. This p.m. the men took up several rows of potatoes.
