

Aug. 26th - nice day at last. Clare, Jack, Charles and I Sunday went to church. (Nell, Dick and Dory went in their boat.) Dr. Bickerham preached a very fine sermon - text - "and underneath are the everlasting arms." Marjorie Henderson took a snap of us after the service. Saw Mr. & Mrs.
Jameison, Mrs. Henderson & Marjorie, Mrs.
Bickerham, Adelaide, Madeline & her husband (Dr. Lillstrom) who arrived last night. After lunch we went to Elgin House and got Adelaides (Madeline and her husband away for a picnic in their canoe) and had 1/2 hrs run on the lake and then called at Nell's and spent an hour there leaving Adelaide. (Nell took her home) after dinner had a call from Nell, Mother, Dick & Dory and then Clare, Jack, Charles and I went to church again.
Dr. Hyndman of Philadelphia preached.
Rather poor preacher. Marjorie Henderson saying "I love to tell the story."
