

on the last few loads alone. He hauled out 20 loads to-day. Dad and I didn't get the wire stretched very well but as long as it doesn't go right flat I think it will turn the ship. It has been quite hot to-day. Dad feels quite

Saturday August 16th

I sank and I hauled manure all day but only got out about 17 loads. Niel Eliot was in for a while this morning and Frank went back with him to show him Kate but he said she wasn't in shape yet to buy. This afternoon we were driven in but first a heavy thunder shower and it kept on raining pretty much till dark. Dad has felt very miserable and weak to-day and has not been out of the house all day. Frank went down town to night.

Sunday August 17th

We were greatly surprised this morning to find George in bed with Dick. He came up last night and came over with Frank after I was asleep. Ed. Turvie has got him a good job as draughtsman on the Welland Canal. Dad drove Sid and me down to Sunday school and the boys all came down to church. Dick and I stayed at Auntie's for dinner and I went with hand and played record music in Powell Park this afternoon. George & Frank were down this afternoon but came home to tea and for the evening I went down to see I went for a few minutes and he gave me some ice cream to bring home. Pretty warm to-day. George

Monday August 18th

I sank and I hauled manure to-day but only got out 13 loads as the rain this morning delayed us so that we only hauled 4 loads out before dinner. It rained again this afternoon but not till we were just about ready to quit. I went down to band practice to-night so we quit at five. Dad felt better to-day and he and Sid went down to cut Auntie Alice's oats but they didn't get them cut on account of the rain. I went to take them out for a while in his motor boat and they got home just in time for Dad to help on milk. Some garden thief has been very active this last week, about 100 hills of potatoes were dug out of Ed. Moore's garden up on Main St and a lot of beets and carrots were taken from Mrs. Battersby's and Uncle Ward's gardens on Saturday night. Frank drove George down this morning and he got off on the 6.30 A.M. R.
