

in at Adams's corner. Annie came in I saw in garden they went home Alfred & Mrs Tracy came after tea. We had a fire in the parlour we talked till tea. I saw Alfred his silk blanket which I had for so long. We had a very pleasant evening of it. I said to him I wonder if E. W. has got your letter yet. He want ed to know how I knew it. Then Sarah told him we were over there & I had told us they had got a letter for E. W. from Nelson. Alf said that he did not write any but that some girls on the Street told him they would write to E. W. but he said he did not know that E. W. was going away so soon.
Alf said that he would give 25 cts to
