DECEMBER SATURDAY 29 (363-2) 1923

Quite cold today around home. I helped Gerald to rig up his sleighs in the forenoon and I piled up some lumber in the Barn Loft and piled up the Straw all in one end to make room for hay in the afternoon Gerald went for a load of hay over to Office for a while in the evening I took sick and was very sick all night tonight

SUNDAY 30 (364-1)

dark dismal in bed all day Quite Sick Gerald in for a while in the afternoon and evening very long day

DECEMBER MONDAY 31 (365) 1923

dark and cold today in the house all day. snowed a little in the afternoon and turned warmer towards evening and got very windy it rained hard at bedtimes we went to bed early.
