

Camden Gore October 1832

Sat Sept 29th cloudy fore part of the day latter part clear and hot. John was plowing Duncan and I was cutting up corn in the fore noon after noon I was cutting up corn. Duncan went home.

Sun Oct 1st clear and hot.

Mon Oct 2nd clear part of the day and warm John was plowing I was digging potatoes. Duncan away home.

Tue Oct 3rd clear and hot. I went to Thamesville to Mill and to see the fair. John helping to dig a well for Zeek Duncan away home. I came back this evening.

Wed Oct 4th clear and hot. John was harrowing and plowing I was digging potatoes. Duncan helping dig a well for Zeek.

Thu Oct 5th clear and very hot. more like a July day than October. Duncan and I finished digging potatoes, John drilling in the Democrat wheat.

Fri Oct 6th clear and very hot. in the fore noon I was pitting potatoes after noon husking corn John and Duncan away to the Dresden fair.

Sat Oct 7th clear part of the day and hot. this fore noon Duncan & I were pitting - potatoes and cleaning out water furrows in the wheat field after noon I went to Thamesville for the grist John and Duncan husking corn and fixing up bars.

Camden Gore October 1832

Sun Oct 8th clear and pleasant

Mon Oct 9th flying clouds and high wind from the West. I was husking corn John and Duncan making a fence around the hay stack over the river and drawing wood in the fore noon. after noon they were drawing pumpkins and corn.

Tue Oct 10th cloudy a fine rain last night.

Tue Oct 10th clear and fine. Duncan and I gathering apples John plowing the new Orchard.

Wed Oct 11th cloudy part of the day. a fine rain last night. Duncan and I sawing cord wood John drilling in wheat in the new Orchard.

Thu Oct 12th cloudy most of the day. Duncan and I cutting cord wood John and Chateau McIntosh plowing for wheat.

Fri Oct 13th cloudy rain most of the afternoon John harrowing the ground they plowed yesterday Duncan and I breaking clods in the fore noon. after noon helping Albert thrash