

May, 1929.

1 Wednesday. Cloudy & threatening
Ella did the washing and boiled Grandpa Maurer's soap for the second time. The men started making a new piece of fence along the manure yard. Mr. and Mrs.
Wesley Miller spent the evening here.

2 Thursday. Rained all day.
Ella gave the floor upstairs the first coat of paint and did the ironing.
Walter went over to Henry Witzell's
this morning and stayed for dinner.

3 Friday. Very stormy and cold.
Looks like winter. Bert Hilliard and Harry Smith came up here for dinner and Walter went over to Henry Witzell's with them to kill a horse. The following people spent the evening here: Mr. & Mrs.
Wesley Miller, Mr. & Mrs. Earl
Miller, Mr. & Mrs. Harvey Schmidt
Rhoda and Gladys.
