

Th. 31,

March 31st 1892.

Continued from last page
Johnny & I called on Mr.
Dargy's 114 Wilkinson Ave
for further particulars
regarding Charles Dargy's arrest. The information we received was a ~~not~~ great surprise to us
he having been sent up for trial for forgery &
grand larceny, it being a serious charge in N.Y.
His mother says he is not right in the top story still that remains for the Grand Jury to decide, which will take place about May Met Mr Colonel Strong
to-day. of Bellville Westing

~~March~~

John, Robinson, Esq.
223, Marcellus St.
Syracuse,
N.Y.