

June

THURSDAY, 16

1921

Brook rolled corn ground and sowed it in forenoon. Henry had till laid by noon. Ploughing in ditch in afternoon.

Sultry and cloudy at times looking like rain.

FRIDAY, 17

Choring and chapping in forenoon. To town in afternoon with some pig chop and took International separator back.

Took Ewins drill home after tea. Quite a rainy morning but cleared up in afternoon. Quite sultry.

SATURDAY, 18

Drawing out manure for turnips. We three to town at night.

Fine and warm.

MEMORANDA