

Frances + Margaret-Christoffer called for costumes.
Read my little play "Some Secrets" to Charles and he pronounced the deadly criticism of going to sleep on Monday night. Mr. R.M.
Oswald called in the evening to see
Charles on business + came in to see me.

Oct. 10th - Very foggy in morning but nice sunshiny
Wednesday day. Studied a little. Went down town - McGaw St. to Mill - and called to see Mrs.
Leitch, called at Charlie's store and the office and came home with Charles at noon. After dinner Dr. + Mrs. West, Sinclair called for a few minutes (came over to see Charles on business. Later I walked around Main St. Block. Charles went to prayer meeting at night. Heard later - Charlie took mother to Ken-cardine today to visit Mrs. John Debet)

Oct. 11th - Foggy - no sun by news. Wrote to Clara.
(Thursday) Bit lazy today + interested in "The World Crisis" so did not study. Walked down to the museum in the afternoon (Beautiful day here)
