100 DAYS PAST

265 TO COME

Cancer and the Surgeon.

I am, of course, well aware that all cases of cancer of the stomach, unhappily, do not come to the surgeon. No one but the surgeon can do any good to patients so afflicted. Yet there is a strange timidity of approach to the surgeon which is unaccountable, and far too often the favorable period in the history of a case is allowed to slip away before any recognition of the real conditions is attempted.—Sir Berkeley Moynihan, Address in Surgery, Brit. Med. Assn., 1913.
