

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1870.

The boys have been working at the Clovered this afternoon or rather all day. The weather is very favourable for such work & promises to continue so for a time.

I don't know that that I have ever felt so more perfectly resigned to the will of God with reference to the matter of a Companion than at present. I thank God for a soothing spirit. May it always depart from my mind. O Lord! Which ever way he leads me I want to be content.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1870.

I have been with my dear Mother away to the Nashville Camp Meeting to day. Have enjoyed it much and my soul has been blessed. They are having an excellent Camp Meeting. We met with Rev. James Cress of the Hellington Square Circuit who was on our circuit about twenty three years ago. I asked after the wellfare of my friends down there and he said that they were all well. He remembers being at our place when on the circuit distinctly besides incident that happened him.
