

August, 1931.

29 Saturday. Cool & windy
Rain this p.m. We all went to the Sunday School picnic which was held in Kitchener Park. We called on Edna Weaver who is sick in bed
with typhoid fever.

30 Sunday. Cool & windy.
No services as Mr. Becker is still away.
Laudwell Bolender & Kenneth Atkinson
had their dinner with the boys.
Walter & Ella took Grandpa Krauter's down to Waterloo to Weaver's and had their tea at Colson Jefferson's, also enjoyed the band concert in Elmira.

31 Monday. Fine day.
Walter & Vernon helped to thresh
at Addison Reist's all day.
Willard was cultivating wheat land. Ella dug the early potatoes in the garden and Willard carried them into the cellar.
