

June, 1927.

6 Monday. Fine day. Ella did her washing and cleaned up the wash-house. The men fixed the pasture field fence this morning and this p.m. Walter was drawing manure and Vernon plowed.

7 Tuesday. Fine day. Ella cleaned the dairy, boiled Grandpa's soap for the third time and transplanted her stocks. The men were drawing manure and plowing. Otto Miller & Norman visited us last night and Noah Miller tonight. Walter & Mrs. Stange spent the evening at ^{Jas. & Peter's.}

8 Wednesday. Wonderful morning sultry and thunderstorms all day. Ella went to the District D.D. Convention at North East Hope with Ed. Bender's and had her dinner & supper at Mrs. Mohr's. We came home in a succession of thunderstorms but managed to keep dry.

9 Thursday. Sultry with thunderstorms all day. Walter shipped hogs and cleaned up the slaughter house. Callers - Edwin & Wilfrid Shur and Mrs. & Mrs. Wesley Miller.