

OCTOBER

FRIDAY 7

1887

Went for dinner
to Jacksons to help Louise in moving
his old barn to day.
He has been gathering apples. I went to Jacksons after dinner, and after helping them awhile, to complete their job Louise and I went to the Cheese Factory and got a couple of porters, one belonging to each of us and took them down to Jarvis.
Received eleven dollars for mine or at the rate of four dollars
and forty cents per hundred live weight.
Had a disagreeable
ride both down and back.

SATURDAY 8

1887

Had a short visit
from Mr Stealy Matthews this morning also
Dr. J. M. Wade, and
G. H. Seaman. The latter two on business.
This afternoon I drove out to Glover, partly to go to the township
agricultural show,
taking Ma and Bensha with me. He got there rather late however, so did not go but took tea with Miss Jones thereby fulfilling an oft repeated promise.
Joe and Mrs. both went out to the show to day, and so did Mariane.
The day has been a delightful one
for this season of year.
