

November, 1929.

13 Wednesday. Rained hard this morning. Cloudy all day. Walter was butchering at Allen Wagner's today. Vernon was plowing. Uncle Jake Maurer of Clifford called in on his way to Salt.

14 Thursday. Mild & dreary. Started to rain around 5 p.m. Walter killed and dressed a cattle beast here for Noah Miller this afternoon. Vernon plowed.

15 Friday. Cloudy, cold & windy. Showers & snowflurries. Vernon put manure on the garden and they plowed it before dinner. This p.m. Vernon finished the plowing. Walter went to Tom Tobin's sale. Walter cut up the meat for Noah and Noah & Leon got it this a.m.

16 Saturday. Cloudy & cold. Walter took a load of chopping to Floradale this afternoon.