

Sunday November 28th

Mary and I went to Sunday school and church and had dinner at Aunt's. Dinna was there to dinner and we stayed most of the afternoon. I left our cat out doors this morning and when we came home it was nowhere to be found. Mrs. McJannet was at the farm when I went over and as Ruth asked her for tea she said I'm over to bring Mary over so we were here all the evening. Mark Stevens and his brother who is going to technical school in Toronto, were at the farm for dinner and to night I'm to come over and see you out.

Monday, November 29th

Frank ploughed all day and finished up out east of the old garden. Dad went down this morning expecting that the body of Will M. Laade would be in on the morning train but it wasn't and he waited till after dinner and John Thompson had no word of it, so Dad went down and visited all the scenes of public improvement viz. the dock and the swing bridge. I did chores most of the day but this afternoon took a walk back to look at the wheel which is doing fine and on over to see Ed Swanbury's house, he was pulling up the sludding. Mary went down to sit with Aunt Ida this afternoon. I had dinner at the farm.

Tuesday November 30th

It froze hard last night but has been a beautiful day. Frank and Dad started ploughing in the field north of the barn. I did chores and helped them throw out some ditches. We each made one strike out. This was an awful mess. This afternoon I hatched some corn. Geo Thompson telephoned over to say Will M. Laade's funeral would be tomorrow at one o'clock. To night I went to a meeting in Sincere of the County J. F. J. C. where we chewed the rag about a ploughing match next year and winter entertainment. I wouldn't have gone if it hadn't been for the table-cloth they give us but that is the admiration of all who see it so I felt in duty bound. Mary went down to Aunt's and waited till I got home. Some one went in to Val Leany's house to night between six & seven o'clock and robbed him of $500.00 cash and $500.00 in Victory Bonds. Val was at the Point and Mrs Leany had gone up street to get Mrs Henry to come and stay with her all night. Jack Martin got home from the House of Commons to night where he scooped everything in prizes.

Wednesday December 1st

It has been very dark and rained quite hard all day. Dad went down this morning to attend Will M. Laade's funeral but the body didn't come till one o'clock. Mary
