

April

SUNDAY, 10

1921

Home all day.
Melville went home in afternoon,
Flurries of snow and real cold wind,
but bright.

MONDAY, 11

Brook done chores, chopping and drew out the manure that was covering the drains in afternoon.

Mr. Woodman out and read Pa's will in evening.

Fine and bright but cold north wind

TUESDAY, 12

Done chores. ~~Jack Warren~~ a relieved soldier came to work. Finished drawing alkali manure to cover. Ploughing in afternoon on the 8 ac. below maple tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Tarver & Mrs. Dr. Gillie called. Mr. Henderson called in evg. for boxes.

Rather dull like rain

WEDNESDAY, 13

Jack Warren came to work this morning.
Done chores and finished manuring corn ground. Then drew a load of stones off the 8 ac. on other place. Clara & I met to-see Mrs. Mrs. Walker. She died yesterday.
Brook to town at night.
Bright and warm. Looking like rain
