Tuesday May 9, 1922.

I put in the greater part of the day in making out my income tax report. Tent came back from Alf. Langstaff's to stay with us tonight. The day was very fine.

Wednesday May 10, 1922.

Mabel and I went down to M. R. Crawford's and took home her fence stretcher and then went down to the March pasture.

After coming home I worked at fixing the path to the road.

Two men from the Durham mill were here in the evening.
