

Lockwoods.

13th. Canned raspberries, ironed and did a multitude of other things. There has been a funeral three days in succession. Last week we made a pair of pants for Francis and a dress for Charlotte sewed some carpet rags and knit. This week I finished a pair of fine shirts for Henry, and finished a pair of socks. E. A. finished footings a pair.

16th. Mr Snyder staid here over Sunday and I got a cream pitcher, a syrup pitcher, a tea steeper, a little shovel to take up ashes and a tin fire plate. Janey and Emma Sandersons came here after morning service and Henry took them home in the evening. Eddie Blint was here a while Sunday afternoon. Yesterday I called at George Barbers to see Mr and Mrs Ben Barber and hear from Roxa. Aunt Ann has not set up any to speak of since saturday day. Sunday she was dressed and lay on the lounge the most of the day. I was picking black raspberries again today but it is so dry that they do not amount to much. Cleaned this morning, doing chores and knitting during the day. 11th butter.

17th Preparing for a reception tea for our new minister, to be held in the basement of the church at Easton's Corners. Mrs J. McMartin here to dinner. In the evening went to the Corpers to the tea and had a
