

- 15 To 4 loaves 24, 1.3 butter 35
- 16 Sent off of 25th to Church
- 17 Fine St. Peter's day. Sandy Robertson came while we were at breakfast. The Durson Court is held today. John P. came at noon, he was out at St. Raphael's looking for a girl
- 18 Fine bright day. To codfish 35th 2 loaves 12
6 cakes of Comfort soap 25
- 19 Fine bright day. Jimmie's birthday. Murdy went to Glen Donald to see the owners of the land where the Rail Road may pass through, and find out what price per acre they would want for signing the right of way. Jimmie has a very bad cold the result of his soaking on Saturday, and of getting out of bed after taking Jimmie, on Sunday night just at 12. A gallotte of a man came to pay some money on a note that he was sued for the court was on Monday the 17th. Jimmie was at court, and has not been out since. Got from Mrs D. Ferguson by Katie Christie, an enlarged photo of Red Mc Ferguson and an enlarged denegastype of Sarah
- 20 Mild, looks like rain. Murdy off for Glen Donald
- 21 Murdy went to Cornwall. Fine in Morning turned ugly in afternoon about 4 another blizzard, which broke off a large limb from a maple in front next to the corner one
- 22 To 4 loaves 24. butter 1⁰⁰ to 1 gall coal oil 20
- 23 Fine day. Jimmie not so well got up after taking a meat last night off 25. J. P. was down
- 24 Rain and stormy To 2 loaves 12
- 25 Rain Ann did not come today. The river is very high. Mail did not go down in evening.
- 26 Rain and sleet. The trees are loaded with ice
- 27 Fine bright day. No Ann this week. The concert for the 59th company of Militia takes place to night in St Andrews Hall. To 2 loaves 12

- 28. Fine cold day. The earth is covered with snow, and runners is all the go. Murdy left for Cornwall yesterday. The road between here and Lancaster was impassable for two days with ice and logs. The ice got jammed at the iron bridge, and it had to be blasted, the jam raised the water so high that it was likely to flood around the station
 - 29 Destructive floods in Ohio, Illinois Indiana. Some reports 10,000 lives lost and millions of property destroyed. In Dayton Ohio 500 were drowned. This is a fine day, the trees are still loaded with ice. Evening trees bare. To 4 loaves 24
3 lbs butter 30th 2 lbs hard 40
 - 30 A good many out to Church My off 25
 - 31 I was sick last night did not eat any supper I am just lounging today. It is an ugly stormy day thunder lightning and heavy rain. Murdy left for Cornwall this morning
- This has been an eventful month. The assassination of the King of Greece
- Great floods in Ohio Illinois Indiana
- The death at Rome Italy of J. Pierpont Morgan an American Billion on 31st March

F.D. McLENNAN COLL. B-5
 DIARIES - CHRISTINA McLENNAN 17th 1906-1915 - 1914-1903-