JULY MONDAY 10 (191-174) 1922

fine and warm but a quite a nice breeze. Ida and I got up early and went huckle berring. out all day Nellie went with us in the afternoon very tired tonight Ida went home for good tonight

TUESDAY 11 (192-173)

Very warm today over to Office selling repairs most of the forenoon. Mamie and I did a washing after dinner ayed I dug some potatoes for sale The balance of afternoon and evening sold them at 35¢ per peck we had a quite a bad storm tonight fine day around home in the forenoon. Alex Tompson came in from Gananoque. fine and I drove in the afternoon we sold Arthur Dean a O. T. Disc Harrow and came home we had a terrible storm tonight.

JULY WEDNESDAY 12 (193-172) 1922

THURSDAY 13 (194-171)

fine and warm today I took Oasie and Bert Wiltsie down to farm in the morning and picked some raspberries in the forenoon Will Monaghan and Alex Tompson went down to John Hills to trade threshers. I drove Alex Tompson over to Lyndhurst in the afternoon and brought Oasie and Bert home tonight