

April, 1928.

19 Thursday. Rained this morning. Fierce gale blowing all day. Walter shipped hoops at Elmira. Otto & Norman Miller spent the evening here.

20 Friday. Fair. Clear & cold. Walter cleaned seed oats today and Vernon boiled syrup. Ella finished cleaning the upstairs today.

21 Saturday. Cold east wind. Heavy snowfall this afternoon. Vernon was boiling the last batch in the bush this a.m. This afternoon he went to Elmira with Earl Miller to get a hair cut. Walter was cleaning seed grain.

22 Sunday. Grey, dreary day. Walter & Ella went to Conference at Waterloo today. Bishop Dunlap of Cleveland, Ohio preached in the morning. We had our dinner at H. E. Ratz's. In the afternoon Dr. Schlegel of Harrisburg, Pa. gave a very good address. We went up to Grandpa Krueger's for tea. Vernon went to Woolwich S. S. School this morning and over to Otto Miller for dinner.
