

WEDNESDAY, MAY 18, 1870.

Charles and I
have been ploughing
me. The new ground to day. Got along very well. To-morrow we hope to finish ploughing
it all in well.

I have had the boys
doing some little jobs
to day. There were some new hew today with a new kind of roller &

I was foolish enough
to take ten dollars
stock in the concern.

The weather continues very beautiful
and quite warm.
Mrs. & Mr. Heltzer
were here to tea to night.

My religious experiences are not so bright as

THURSDAY, MAY 19, 1870.

We did not quite
finish the ploughing
the new ground to day as I expected, but was almost accomplished it.
The boys have been digging stumps and doing
"chores."

"Hold up, hold on, hold on, hold out, hold fast. That which you have received; I will watch, still for you, still believe; fight and run that you may obtain: it is but a little while, and he that comes will come and will not tarry; it is but a little while and your warfare is accomplished and your iniquities shall be everlastingly separated from you. your sins and sorrows, fears and fears, glad and your - give praise and your heart with an un-wearable crown." "Halt"
