

March 19th 1892.

Sat, 19, High winds from the West, very blustering, roads almost impassable again, calm to night, cloudy. Slight attack of grip

Sund, Cloudy in the morning clearing up, after mid and lovely, 5° below zero.

Mon, 21, Lovely day, mild and very ~~pleasant~~ ~~watcher~~ Mr. Corty sitting at the value of watches mine being his favourite

Tues, Fine in the fore part of day clouding over in the P.M. hailing quite freely, thence to rain, in the evening

Wed, 23, Dull and cloudy in the morning sun shining a little in the day commenced to snow at 5 o'clock P.M.

March 24th 1892

Thurs, 24, Beautiful day thawing fast slightly hazy at night. Prayer meeting of the Epworth League here to night, (no worms)

Fri, 25, Bright warm day, snow melting fast. Cloudy to night

Sat, 26, Warm and clear day, snow melting very fast roads are getting very bare, saw the first wheels today for this season, Northern lights to night.

Sun, 27, Clear bright day, high winds from the east, very brilliant rock sun to night, also a strange phenomenon was seen in the southern sky, it having the appearance of a yellow light about 2 feet long.

Today, 28, My last day in Canada Goodbye
+ continued on next page