

Saturday October 21st

Dad had to go up to Miss M. Coys this morning to tend to a cow. I drove him up and then went down town and got some stuff and called for him again. He did odd jobs this afternoon and I continued to clean up the chicken house. Aunty was over tea and she and Frank went down to night. High wind last night. Cloudy.

Sunday October 22nd

Eush and I drove down to church this morning. Dick was over to dinner. He and I went down to the 3 o'clock car to see Negan off and then went down and froled around the hogk with Wodger all the afternoon. Went down to tea and church to night. I did chores and then went in time to meet church coming out, went for a short walk.

Monday October 23rd

Mr. M. Ewen came down this morning and brought the bunch of hams & the old one, he gave 1 one for the 3. I drove him down to the 1 o'clock and then went up and told Frank I had sold his ram but he didn't care if he can use one. This afternoon I drove up to Drunken's to hurry him up with the peliqueis but I don't know whether it was nudder.

Frank and I went down town to see about getting a car to ship our sheep in. Dad did odd jobs and started shingling the hen house. Frank came and got his ram and paid for him. Lovely day but cool.

Tuesday October 24th

I went down to the station again this morning and found if we took the train down to marrow night, they would go out the next morning and not stay all night at Norwich. Dad took Luis wagon home and I shingled and this afternoon helped Dad move the hinders over from the big barn and Dad cleaned the barn out. Aunty wants us to thrash in the morning. Cloudy but much milder.

Wednesday October 25th

Dad was over at Art's thrashing this morning for an hour or two and then came back and cleaned up around the big barn. I shingled and this afternoon we took the eight rams down and loaded them. Mr. Ewen came down from Brantford as he thought he wasn't going to get his old ram in time but it was all right. Clair Jackson died this morning. Cold rain all afternoon.

Thursday October 26th

I was down town most of the morning on messages and this afternoon
