

December, 1926.

19 Sunday. Cold. Started to snow this afternoon. We went to Woolwich church and S. School this morning and, as they had the election of officers we got home about the middle of the afternoon. We were up at Koeske's for supper.

20 Monday. Mild & foggy. Ella did the washing. Walter went to Cragg's sale with Bill King this afternoon.

21 Tuesday. Mild & dull. Walter took a load of wheat to Elmira this afternoon and went to St. Jacobs with Addison Peist. Ella & Vernon made mince meat and iced cookies this p.m. Jacob Hoerle died at Heidelberg last night.
