

- Wed Nov 26. Fine and very cold. light Furnace roads frozen dry.
- Thur Nov 27. Very cold. I went to Toronto, and Aunt Nellie & I met Mr. Vanostrand ^{General.}
- Fri Nov 28. ^{W. brot paper} Fine but cold. I went to Dr. my arm very painful and inflamed.
- Sat Nov 29. Rained steadily all day, at nine o'clock a terrific wind (youngman's hen house, chimney blown down also Simpkins house). sore throat.
- Sun Nov 30. A very high wind and cold. we were not out. my arm bad. ^{called.} Annie
- Mon Dec 1. Fine and cold. good roads frozen clean. wind did a lot of damage.
- Tue Dec 2. Fine clear and cold. Our Range out every night as Coal is bad.
- Wed Dec 3. A beautiful day, clear & cold. Aunt Mattie and I went to Wedding.
- Thur Dec 4. Fine day, bright and cold. the day of Mr Cummers accident.
- Fri Dec 5. Fine day, east wind, and cold.
- Sat Dec 6. Snowing lightly all afternoon. Mr Little's baby died. Aunt Mattie and I called. David and George, here to tea. quite a snow fall.
- Sun Dec 7. Still snowing a little very light. Annie and I called at Mr Little's Aunt Mattie and I at evening church.
- Mon Dec 8. Fine and very mild, Aunt N. and I at funeral. Mary here a while. Jennie Eddy called, in evening. Mrs Davidson in ev. ^{well.} clothes dried.
- Tue Dec 9. Very mild and misty. Aunties and I in Toronto. Slushy.
- Wed Dec 10. Fine very cold west wind. Snow flurries, little Cummer ^{Vault.} girl in
- Thur Dec 11. Fine very cold and frosty. Mary Chapman called.
- Fri Dec 12. Fine and mild. M. Watson here. Aunt N. called at Little's & Seager's very slushy. Annie here in eve.
- Sat Dec 13. Fine very mild until eve. freezing