

Charles. While waiting wrote an advertising story for Aluma. Then Mr. Caldwell came in and did the agreement. Dorothy came down and she and I went to the Bijou. Play "The Egg-Crate-Wallp" was very good. Scurried around for an hour getting absorbed in it. Ready for Dorothy etc.

Thursday mid-day to evening but cloudy by Sept-9th noon. Worked in the garden for an hour. Went down for meat. Dorothy came along. Called at Iner's with their jar of canned tomatoes (Mrs. Ryan did while we were all away to keep them from spoiling) 9A atomizer fixed & invested in some Raz-mah tablets for D's hay-fever. Spent some time trying to find Dorothy's poem on "Springtime in Flanders." Found it at last and she wrote another this afternoon. I went down town to get the mail and then played one set and four games of tennis with Duncan.
