

October

THURSDAY, 13

1921

Brook finished ploughing red rest-ground on other place about three o'clock.
They went back to the 14 ac. to plough.
Herb Stephenson raised rest of potatoes in garden and at Setho's threshing for us.
Clara up to Roop in P. M.
Fine bright breezy day.
Melville came this evening.

FRIDAY, 14

Brook ploughed out half the potatoes in morning. Then ploughing on other place until noon. Raising potatoes in afternoon.
Clara & Melville to store in forenoon. Melville went to Brampton in afternoon.
Fine warm day.
Herb at Setho's threshing

SATURDAY, 15

Look up rest of potatoes. Then drawing in corn.
Herb at Setho's threshing until noon
then helping with potatoes & corn.
Melville came from Brampton this eve.
Clara, he & I to town.
Beautiful warm day.

MEMORANDA