

and then Frank and I took Harry and Belle and went down and got some more. Frank got his flats which Emery cut out for him for making her hair supers. This afternoon we took the little chickens out of the incubator and put them up in the loft under the four hens, two of which acted as if they would be very good mothers and two were crows but we covered the latter up with horse blankets and are hoping they will be all right in the morning. We only got 60 chicks out of the incubator which was pretty poor but the hens only hatched four. We put the un hatched eggs from the hens in the incubator. After we got them tended to I took a walk down to Dick's Stearns Orchard. Young Aude and Ferris were fishing on the point and had their little horned ace and the ice isn't out of the pond at all below Goosey. It has been a bright sunny day little windy.

Sunday March 20th

On account of having the little chicken to tend to this morning I didn't get down to Sunday school but Dora and I went down to church. We took Belle as Joe had her eye all swelled up this morning. Frank went down to Sunday school and Dick and Aunt Alice were over to dinner. Dick went down town soon after dinner and Frank went with him. Aunt Alice went down about four o'clock and
