August TUESDAY 26 1919

fine but cloudy. I helped to put the tile in Jim Simpsons well in the forenoon I met Clint Dawson at the farm in the afternoon and I traded him the McPherson horse for his runnabout and $25.00 received 20.00 in cash on deal. Mamie went down with me and picked berries home in the evening

August WEDNESDAY 27 1919

rained a little all day I made the front axle of the truck for Engineer Simpson here all the afternoon. We played for supper. Mrs Cockrell there. Charlie Tabor came up and stayed all night we did not go to bed until very late.
